FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (September 26, 2006)

re:think's powerful human interest doc "PASSABE" has been licensed to Arte France for digital terrestrial tv in France and Germany, as well as various cab/sat territories within Europe.

Produced by Lianain Films (Singapore), "PASSABE" documents a quest for redemption and forgiveness, an intimate look into the lives of people struggling to rebuild their lives after a war, and an exploration into the universal themes of justice & reconciliation.

Laurene Mansuy, Acquisition Executive at Arte commented, "Faraway Places/Terres d'ailleurs is a documentary slot on ARTE, which seeks to describe the way of life of peoples round the world. In numerous countries, 'life' rhymes with 'war' and the mourning that must be carried out in order to go on living. Thus, ARTE chose "Passabe" for its respectful look at the day-to-day difficulties encountered in East Timor during the post-war years, as well as its thinking about the ways to heal wounds stemming from the recent past. This film is a profound, universal interrogation on the quest for justice and the need for reconciliation after a war."
