

Cube dudes

RE:THINK Entertainment is in Cannes with a one-off documentary “Cubers” (60 mins). The programme, about a group of individuals obsessed with the Rubik’s Cube, has been commissioned by Canadian public broadcaster CBC for delivery in February 2007. Produced by Red Cube Productions and Executive Producers Susan Boshcoff and Paula Hutchinson (re:think), Cubers follows Rubik’s Cube fanatics as they solve the puzzle blindfolded, underwater and while jumping out of airplanes. At MIPCOM, re:think is aiming to secure US and foreign pre-sales.
