FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (September 25, 2006)

Already a ratings hit with cab/sat broadcasters worldwide, re:think Entertainment's edgy & entertaining travelogue series of the world's most famous "Red Light Districts" is proving to be a huge success on VOD since launching on Spain's ONO network in July, 2006.

Emma García, Manager of VOD Programming & Content at ONO says "This series is among the most watched programs in our travel area. I guess people find it interesting because it is very different from a "classical" travel series, more daring without being offensive, and of course there is the morbid side of it."

Red Light Districts is an original series from Alt Routes Productions (Toronto, Canada). It first aired on OLN (Canada) and has been licensed to numerous territories in Asia, Europe and North America.
