re:think Notches Up International Deals

TORONTO, May 22: re:think Entertainment has shored up a range of deals on its slate of documentary and lifestyle titles, including the sale of the youth travel series Get Outta Town to TVB in Hong Kong and Canal Jimmy Italy's pickup of Burning Man: Beyond Black Rock.

Burning Man: Beyond Black Rock was licensed to Canal Jimmy through Liliun Distribution, and has also been licensed to New Zealand's Rialto Channel. The feature length doc captures a year behind the scenes leading up to the prominent arts event as it celebrated its 20th anniversary last August.

The 13x30-minute Get Outta Town sold to TVB Pearl and TVBI for free TV in Hong Kong and multiple Asian cable and satellite territories. Season two of the series is going into production this summer and will be available in January 2007.

Another lifestyle show, the 60x30-minute Real Renos, has sold to the How To Channel in Australia.

The 14x30-minute action/reality series Race Car Driver went to Viasat for pay TV in Scandinavia and Eastern Europe, UKTV in the U.K. and Global Television in Canada for Cool TV. Re:think will be rolling out season two of the series, which follows the Forsythe racing team during the Champ Car Series, this MIPCOM.

On the kids' front, TV Ontario's Inquiring Minds, an entertaining science series, has been licensed to the Alter Channel in Greece for its children's programming block.
