THE UNDOCUMENTED DOCUMENTARY human interest/current affairs documentary

Wetback is a feature length documentary that follows several immigrants from Central America and Mexico on an extraordinary and extremely dangerous journey to North America.

More than 3,000 Latin Americans a day embark upon this journey. Less than 300 make it to their destination.

Nayo, Milton, Luis, Oscar and Ana are just some of the thousands of people that will join one of the largest migration movements in history. Their motivation is a life with dignity. Their disadvantage is that none of them have legal traveling documents.

The film begins in Nicaragua and takes the viewer on a journey through five borders and many other dangerous obstacles. Border control tightens as the migrants move North. Gangs in Mexico and vigilante groups in the USA are some of the perils they might have to face on their way to the American Dream.
