

MIPCOM PICKS

THE SWEET SOUL BURLESQUE ROAD SHOW

Costumes, lingerie, hula hoops, fans, glitter, red velvet curtains and a big pink bus (with Jacuzzi). As Stan Lee once quipped: "Nuff said."

Sweet Soul follows a troupe of sassied-out femmes bent on burlesque revival as they tramp from town to town. Not the ditsy, stereotypical pin-ups you'd expect, these women aim to undermine traditional standards of beauty and, in the words of one Sweet Soul, advise 'flaunting your beauty and commodifying yourself.'

It promises to be a frivolous, feathered romp - providing the producers can find the partners they require.

Partners: ReThink Entertainment (Toronto).

Wrapping: Likely 2008 / Length: 13 x 30 minutes

Rights available: Worldwide, all media